Prof. Schoemer, the mesmerist, is at present making a tour of Indiana. He is showing this week in Connersyille. The Professor is receiving flattering tices wherever he goes, and is being liberally patrenized.

Hon. Themas W. Chapman of Navarre, was the first man to pay his six dollars for the Daily Democrate one year. We have room for more, and this is business. Mr. Chapman was elected State Senator from Cairoll and Stark in 1857 on the Democratic ticket. It was one of the fierce contests which we well remocrate.

The robber of the Carroll county trea sury has not yet been uncarthed and it is hinted that his place of abode is not a hundred miles from the county, seat. How he gained a knowledge of the combination of the safe is what gets away with the treasurer and his bondemen. With this robbery, so closely suplemen-ted by the alleged bribery of a commis sioner in the employment of an archi-tect for the new court house and jail, little Carroll is Jail broke up."-Alliance Review.

A church picnie at Fairmount Chil-dren's Home last fall was greatly shocked and scandalized by the discovery that a large number of the children were "fed on bread and water," and mention-ing it to their neighbors occasionally ing it to their neighbors occasionally through the winter, the story has gradually assumed alarming proportions, much to the discredit of the Children's Home management. An investigation of the matter, however, reveals the fact that the children of the Home are well fed and clothed, and enjoy every needful comfort and care. The story has for its foundation the fact that one of their penalties for disobedience, is putting penalties for disobedience, is putting the child on bread and water a certain time, instead of whipping, &c. On the day of the picnic alluded to, it chanced there were a number of cases of this kind, which the visitors noticed, and without inquiry took it for granted it was the regular diet of the children. Hence the story of the starvation busi-ness. Several of the larger boys remember the circumstance and laugh over it .- Alliance Review.

Alliance Items,

The Alliance voters next Monday are to express for or against a compromise with the bondsmen of C. K. Greiner.

The Republicans held a preliminary caucus last friday night, which organ-ized by electing John Day chairman and W.C. Pippit, Esq., secretary. Matt Early made a speech favoring a mixed ticket, but the regulars present were in the majority, and the meeting was so suddenly done for that it was hard to tell what it was begun for .- [The Leader.

Another Glaring Fraud.

Alliance is gaining a reputation for organizing fraudulent schemes. Some time ago a man entered our office and showed us a letter purporting to have been written by the "American Lantern Company," with a printed letter heading and asked us if we knew of any such concern. We answered that we did not, and had no done it was a fram! No and had no doubt it was a fraud. No names a peared on the beading, and diligent inquiry falled for some time to give us any information, or place any light in the lantern supposed to be manufactured by the wonderful industry of our city.

We have at last learned, however, that the parties interested in the swindle are the parties interested in the swindle are one James N. Tracy, a former clerk in the Chase House, and one Charles G. Oliver, a painter of Canton. Both have been arrested and are now in jail at Cleveland, awaiting a continuance of their examination before U. S. Commissioner White on the charge of using the United States mails to defraud. Tracy was arrested last Tuesday and had a partial examination Wednesday, giving testimony that led to the arrest of Oliver Wednesday night. The scheme as developed by the examination was as follows: Tracy and Oliver organized, on Wednesday night. The scheme as developed by the examination was as follows: Tracy and Oliver organized, on paper, the American Street Lantern Co. of Alliance. Letters were sent to parties seeking agents. The letters which were written in ink, ran: "You have been recommended to us as a sober, honest industrious man for an agent. We can offer you $40 for the first 30 days and allow $3 per day for expenses. If you prove acceptable we will employ you longer at an increase of salary. As we have shipped parties samples and they have refused to take them and they were shipped back at our expense you can remit us $5 to cover cost of shipping. This will be returned to you with first month's salary. Think you would like the business," etc., etc. Dupes jumped at even this rank bait and many letters were received in reply. Tracy said he knew it was a frand, but went in just to can be considered and support the first of Jacob Hoffman on the Georgetown road, last night. No clue to the thief.

BURGLARS FOILED.

One of the Number Captured and Jailed the Other Escapes,

About haif-past one o'clock Sunday morning as Fred. Bowers, a boarder at the house of David L. Miller, 145 East Third street, was out in the yard at the rear of the house, his attention was at-Third street, was out in the yard at the rear of the house, his attention was attracted by the appearance of two men prowling about the premises. He concealed himself behind a pump and awaited further developments. The two men approached the out kitchen, and breaking the glass in one of the windows, one of them boosted the other through the opening. Just at this time Bowers came from his place of conceal ment, and sneaking up to the man left on the outside dealt him a genuius John L. Sullivan blow square in the face weich sent him sprawling to the ground. Bowers then rushed into the house, and awakening the inmates, told Mr. Miller to go to the kitchen and secure the man on the inside, while he went to attend to the one he had knocked out. Miller went to the kitchen, but could find nothing of the man who crawled through the window. It sugh he searched the entire premises. In the meantime word was despatched to Marshal Schlagle, who lives in the neighborhood, and hurrying over to the scene that officer found the fellow who had encountered Bowers' det is the custody of the latter. the fellow who had encountered Bowers dat in the custody of the latter.

With the assistance of Herman Mock, the marshal took him to the jail, where he gave his name as Edward Horison, residence everywhere. He was locked up and the charge of burglary placed posite his name. A thorough search was instituted for man who entered the window of the ont kitchen, but he had made good his escape and could not be found. On the way to jail the captured thief told the marshal that if he went to the paper mill barn he would no doubt succeed in capturing his partner, as he was stop-ping there with a number of others. Agreeably to this advice, the marshal, after locking his prisoner up, started for the paper midlin company with three or four other officers. Arriving there, the officers repaired to the barn where they found four men whom they took into custody, and started with them for the calaboose. On the way thither one of the prisoners managed to give the officers the slip, and taking to his heele was soon out of sight. The rest were taken to the city prison and locked up. They were brought before the mayor this morning in company with two or three other hard looking cases that had been picked up by the police, but as nothing was charged against them they were turned lease with an injunction to shake the dust of Canton from eff their

The Legislature. The House met this afternoon at three o'clock, with a fair attendance. A large number of bills and resolutions bearing upon the Cincinnati riots were intro-duced. Among the bills was one by Mr. Thompson, authorizing the issuing of $500,000 in bonds to replace the destroyed records and repair other indebtedness of the county. Also, a resolution calling for the appointment of a committee to go to Cincinnati and inquire into the state of affairs and recommend measures to be taken to repair the damage.—[Columbus Times, 31st.

About four o'clock this morning fire broke out in a small two-story frame building on West Main street occupied by Lewis Reed and family as a millinery store and dwelling. Firemen and other persons who got there first entered the building through the dames and smoke and safely removed Mrs. Reed and two daughters, aged ten and eleven years, who slept in the rear room up stairs. It the darkness and smoke it was supposed as a matter of course, that Mr. Reed and his son Owen, aged sixteen; who occupied the middle room up stairs, had got out of the building without assistance; but about five processing with the box was found being with o'clock the boy was found lying on the loor of his room dead, having suffocated, as not a mark of any kind was found upon him.
